BIOGRAPHY

Julia Rossetti concentrates her practice in trust administration, estate planning and estate administration. Prior to teaming up with Attorneys Ken Brier and Susan Marandett to establish the partnership of Brier, Marandett & Rossetti LLP, Julie served as Of Counsel at Brier & Ganz LLP and worked with Attorney Ken Brier in the predecessor firm to Brier & Ganz LLP. Prior to this, Julie was an associate at Hale and Dorr (now WilmerHale) for six years. While there, she provided a broad range of services to individual clients and their families from basic estate planning to sophisticated asset transfer strategies designed to minimize transfer taxes. She has also worked with numerous charitable organizations, advising new entities on acquiring tax exempt status and working with boards of established entities on their obligations and duties. She currently serves as trustee of over $100 million in various family trust assets, and as manager of several family limited liability companies with over $100 million in invested assets.
